

THE JERUSALEM POST

100 VIRGINIA 20 CIG 600 PR

TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1958

THE JERUSALEM POST

100 VIRGINIA 20 CIG 600 PR

TUESDAY, JULY 22, 1958

All classes of Insurance

BOHAN

INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED

PRICE: 10 PRUTA VOL. XXXIV, No. 5175

MARGINAL COLUMN

THE calm with which the majority of the Jewish population is facing the present emergency is something so startlingly new in the Jewish history of the last two thousand years that we cannot fail to perceive it. But it is a fact nevertheless that we seem to have worked out of our system the processes to alarm that often marked us off from other peoples during the generations of exile. The Biblical curse was that a time should come when we would start at the sound of a bird, which is a fine literary figure of speech for someone in a constant state of acute apprehension. One does not have to cite various historical instances of this, for they can always be cancelled out by even more telling stories of heroism and steadfastness. But this apprehensiveness was there as part of the character we acquired in exile. One popular habit will suffice to indicate it. Who does not remember how the older generation invariably asked, when told of news of some disaster, "Where were the Jews among the victims?" The question was not dictated by a lack of sympathy for the poor Gentile but by the conviction that it was in calamity anywhere that Jews will be the rule of malignant fortune. There is a kind of Freudian fearfulness and one might say that it is an over-reaction to someone's fear of the Jew in exile.

Israel Bolsters Its Arms, B-G Declares

Jerusalem Post Knesset Reporter

Eban Sees Dulles On Arrival

WASHINGTON (INA). — Ambassador Abba Eban met with Secretary of State John F. Dulles on Monday afternoon to discuss aspects of the Middle East crisis. Mr. Eban rushed back to Washington from a visit to Israel. He arrived here early on Monday.

All Identity Card Rules Scrapped

Jerusalem Post Knesset Reporter

The three-man Ministerial committee charged with formulating regulations for the identity card registration of children of mixed marriages on Monday suspended all directives on the subject promulgated since 1948 and issued an interim ruling in their stead that all such cases be brought before the committee for individual consideration.

The committee, which followed the committee's first meeting since its appointment on July 17, declared that a list of scholars of Jewish law had been drawn up and that these men would be consulted. Decisions would no longer be made at the departmental level but only by the committee pending the formulation of new regulations.

The decision brought to an end what had appeared to be a controversy between the Minister of Interior and the Minister of Justice on the question of the rules to be enforced at present. They, together with the Minister of Justice, make up the committee.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

Mr. Ben-Gurion had contended that the Cabinet decision establishing the committee was a "dangerous precedent" for the future of the State. He said that the committee was not a permanent body and that its members would be subject to change.

France Accepts 'Principle' Of Summit Talks; U.S., U.K. Silent

France announced on Monday "acceptance in principle" of Mr. Khrushchev's call for a Five-Power summit conference to discuss the Middle East crisis, while Britain and the United States have not yet given a clear indication of what their replies will be. But the possibility of a summit conference in Geneva on Tuesday (today), as Mr. Khrushchev suggested, appears to be excluded. A letter from Mr. Nehru accepting Mr. Khrushchev's proposal was delivered in Moscow on Monday by the Indian Ambassador.

U.K. Delays Till Today U.S. Reply Depends On U.N. Debate But Paris Says 'No' to Terms

WASHINGTON (Reuters). — The White House spokesman said on Monday that the reply to Prime Minister Khrushchev would not be sent that day. It disposed of any lingering hope that the heads of government would meet in Geneva on Tuesday (today) as the Soviet Prime Minister proposed.

Political observers said the Western powers probably would not disclose their reply to Mr. Khrushchev's proposal until it was learned what attitude the Soviet Union takes in the Security Council debate. If the Soviet delegate votes the Japanese proposal for an increased United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Lebanon it might have a bearing on the tone of the Western reply.

One unconfirmed report said that the United States draft would reject the call for an immediate summit meeting outside the United Nations and would propose that diplomatic efforts to deal with the Middle East problem be continued in the world organization.

Differences in emphasis. Some American observers asserted that there appeared to be a difference in emphasis between Washington and London on the other hand and Paris on the other on the approach to a summit meeting either inside or outside the United Nations.

It was attributed in Britain to the opposition from the Labour Opposition for acceptance of Mr. Khrushchev's idea.

The Soviet proposal said that the text of the treaty should include provisions aimed at preventing and opposing aggression in Europe and consolidating the security of all European states.

The idea of such an agreement has repeatedly been set forth in recent years by the Governments of the United States, Britain and France also.

It is suggested to provide means aimed at ending the arms race and reducing the force of the Warsaw Treaty and NATO.

Initiative on the part of European states in the search for such partial solutions could open prospects for broader agreements involving the Governments of the United States, Britain and France.

The draft treaty envisaged the establishment of a demilitarized zone in Europe. It should be located in the immediate vicinity of the line dividing the military groupings existing in Europe.

The signatories must pledge to respect the status of the pre-mentioned zone and consider the territories of the states forming this zone as excluded from the sphere of the use of nuclear weapons.

The U.S.S.R. Government suggests that in the next one or two years the strength of foreign troops in Germany be reduced by one-third or by another factor, and that agreement be reached on establishing a system of control and inspection over the fulfillment of this obligation.

The Soviet Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

France Accepts 'Principle' Of Summit Talks; U.S., U.K. Silent

France announced on Monday "acceptance in principle" of Mr. Khrushchev's call for a Five-Power summit conference to discuss the Middle East crisis, while Britain and the United States have not yet given a clear indication of what their replies will be. But the possibility of a summit conference in Geneva on Tuesday (today), as Mr. Khrushchev suggested, appears to be excluded. A letter from Mr. Nehru accepting Mr. Khrushchev's proposal was delivered in Moscow on Monday by the Indian Ambassador.

U.K. Delays Till Today U.S. Reply Depends On U.N. Debate But Paris Says 'No' to Terms

WASHINGTON (Reuters). — The White House spokesman said on Monday that the reply to Prime Minister Khrushchev would not be sent that day. It disposed of any lingering hope that the heads of government would meet in Geneva on Tuesday (today) as the Soviet Prime Minister proposed.

Political observers said the Western powers probably would not disclose their reply to Mr. Khrushchev's proposal until it was learned what attitude the Soviet Union takes in the Security Council debate. If the Soviet delegate votes the Japanese proposal for an increased United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Lebanon it might have a bearing on the tone of the Western reply.

One unconfirmed report said that the United States draft would reject the call for an immediate summit meeting outside the United Nations and would propose that diplomatic efforts to deal with the Middle East problem be continued in the world organization.

Differences in emphasis. Some American observers asserted that there appeared to be a difference in emphasis between Washington and London on the other hand and Paris on the other on the approach to a summit meeting either inside or outside the United Nations.

It was attributed in Britain to the opposition from the Labour Opposition for acceptance of Mr. Khrushchev's idea.

The Soviet proposal said that the text of the treaty should include provisions aimed at preventing and opposing aggression in Europe and consolidating the security of all European states.

The idea of such an agreement has repeatedly been set forth in recent years by the Governments of the United States, Britain and France also.

It is suggested to provide means aimed at ending the arms race and reducing the force of the Warsaw Treaty and NATO.

Initiative on the part of European states in the search for such partial solutions could open prospects for broader agreements involving the Governments of the United States, Britain and France.

The draft treaty envisaged the establishment of a demilitarized zone in Europe. It should be located in the immediate vicinity of the line dividing the military groupings existing in Europe.

The signatories must pledge to respect the status of the pre-mentioned zone and consider the territories of the states forming this zone as excluded from the sphere of the use of nuclear weapons.

The U.S.S.R. Government suggests that in the next one or two years the strength of foreign troops in Germany be reduced by one-third or by another factor, and that agreement be reached on establishing a system of control and inspection over the fulfillment of this obligation.

The Soviet Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

Record Toll Of Killings in Cyprus

NICOSSIA (Reuters). — Two Turkish and one Greek Cypriot were found murdered on Monday bringing the week-end death toll to 34 and the week's number to a record 34 dead and 28 injured. The month's death toll was 66.

As a result, strict new security measures have been introduced. A large fire broke out on Sunday night at the recently constructed Government Teachers Training College on a hill overlooking Nicosia.

The first official reports said the outbreak was followed by a number of explosions inside the building.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

The Governor of Cyprus, Sir Hugh Foot, ordered a 48-hour standstill throughout the island as from dawn Tuesday in view of the continuing disorders.

Formal Pact Excluded From Mrs. Meir's Visit to Paris

Jerusalem Post Correspondent

PARIS. — The Israeli Embassy issued a categorical denial on Monday of the report published in "Combat" that Foreign Minister Meir's proposed visit to Paris at the end of July is aimed at concluding a military pact.

The grave events that have taken place around us compel us to discount the report. We must review briefly such matters as are real and threaten us.

The tangible development is that the events in Iraq are without any doubt the most serious since the end of World War II. Iraq has been strengthened by a Soviet satellite and is growing steadily.

We do not know what we can do to ward off this danger. I say "ward off" for the matter is not only with us. The second danger is the one still facing us, the danger of the Arab world.

These are the dangers which our Government has been pursuing in the past few days. I cannot emphasize too much the fact that we must achieve the essential freedom of movement for our shipping, for the Red Sea, as an internationally regulated right.

But in this involved world situation, a situation that is steadily becoming more involved, it is impossible to do more than at any previous time to concentrate our attention on the strengthening of our forces, and the safeguarding of our independence and safety.

These things we are doing. It may surprise many, but there is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

France Accepts 'Principle' Of Summit Talks; U.S., U.K. Silent

France announced on Monday "acceptance in principle" of Mr. Khrushchev's call for a Five-Power summit conference to discuss the Middle East crisis, while Britain and the United States have not yet given a clear indication of what their replies will be. But the possibility of a summit conference in Geneva on Tuesday (today), as Mr. Khrushchev suggested, appears to be excluded. A letter from Mr. Nehru accepting Mr. Khrushchev's proposal was delivered in Moscow on Monday by the Indian Ambassador.

U.K. Delays Till Today U.S. Reply Depends On U.N. Debate But Paris Says 'No' to Terms

WASHINGTON (Reuters). — The White House spokesman said on Monday that the reply to Prime Minister Khrushchev would not be sent that day. It disposed of any lingering hope that the heads of government would meet in Geneva on Tuesday (today) as the Soviet Prime Minister proposed.

Political observers said the Western powers probably would not disclose their reply to Mr. Khrushchev's proposal until it was learned what attitude the Soviet Union takes in the Security Council debate. If the Soviet delegate votes the Japanese proposal for an increased United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Lebanon it might have a bearing on the tone of the Western reply.

One unconfirmed report said that the United States draft would reject the call for an immediate summit meeting outside the United Nations and would propose that diplomatic efforts to deal with the Middle East problem be continued in the world organization.

Differences in emphasis. Some American observers asserted that there appeared to be a difference in emphasis between Washington and London on the other hand and Paris on the other on the approach to a summit meeting either inside or outside the United Nations.

It was attributed in Britain to the opposition from the Labour Opposition for acceptance of Mr. Khrushchev's idea.

The Soviet proposal said that the text of the treaty should include provisions aimed at preventing and opposing aggression in Europe and consolidating the security of all European states.

The idea of such an agreement has repeatedly been set forth in recent years by the Governments of the United States, Britain and France also.

It is suggested to provide means aimed at ending the arms race and reducing the force of the Warsaw Treaty and NATO.

Initiative on the part of European states in the search for such partial solutions could open prospects for broader agreements involving the Governments of the United States, Britain and France.

The draft treaty envisaged the establishment of a demilitarized zone in Europe. It should be located in the immediate vicinity of the line dividing the military groupings existing in Europe.

The signatories must pledge to respect the status of the pre-mentioned zone and consider the territories of the states forming this zone as excluded from the sphere of the use of nuclear weapons.

The U.S.S.R. Government suggests that in the next one or two years the strength of foreign troops in Germany be reduced by one-third or by another factor, and that agreement be reached on establishing a system of control and inspection over the fulfillment of this obligation.

The Soviet Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

The U.S.S.R. Government believes that it would be advisable that the treaty press the readiness of its signatories to exchange experience of their researches and industrial applications of atomic energy and other materials and equipment.

Formal Pact Excluded From Mrs. Meir's Visit to Paris

Jerusalem Post Correspondent

PARIS. — The Israeli Embassy issued a categorical denial on Monday of the report published in "Combat" that Foreign Minister Meir's proposed visit to Paris at the end of July is aimed at concluding a military pact.

The grave events that have taken place around us compel us to discount the report. We must review briefly such matters as are real and threaten us.

The tangible development is that the events in Iraq are without any doubt the most serious since the end of World War II. Iraq has been strengthened by a Soviet satellite and is growing steadily.

We do not know what we can do to ward off this danger. I say "ward off" for the matter is not only with us. The second danger is the one still facing us, the danger of the Arab world.

These are the dangers which our Government has been pursuing in the past few days. I cannot emphasize too much the fact that we must achieve the essential freedom of movement for our shipping, for the Red Sea, as an internationally regulated right.

But in this involved world situation, a situation that is steadily becoming more involved, it is impossible to do more than at any previous time to concentrate our attention on the strengthening of our forces, and the safeguarding of our independence and safety.

These things we are doing. It may surprise many, but there is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee.

There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is the editors' committee. There is one institution which may be given information without it appearing in the press, and this is

The Jerusalem Post
July 22 1958

July 22, 1958

...ther it is preventive. He agreed with the government, that the law should be interpreted as giving the authorities the right to confiscate all edible pork products intended for sale in the area of epidemic concern. The series propounded by the Council being considerable. In other

The next question to be considered, Justice Sutherland said, is whether the authorities may control the pork on their initiative. After due consideration he held that enabling law is an excellent and to be judged by fo

dards, and as it wa
ring of strenuous
monious effort, v
ght complete sati
to none of the prot
it should be pres
if the Knesset ha

the power of Congress to be subject to order they would not have hesitated to say so. In the enabling act, moreover, he added, "Section 4 of the by-laws of the whole should go beyond the framework of the law, part of it severed from the whole, remain valid, (see article 1, § 2, clause 2, of the Constitution.)"

the extent, he contends, that that the section
which the power to confiscate of alleged is not intended for
the respondent's misuse,
then the section
is valid. But to the extent
it gives them
power to confiscate
with which claims are made,

In the present case it

Justice Sussman said the petitioners' objections to the court's jurisdiction on either of the grounds specified, there was no question of illegality about the petition and the order should be discharged.

tion, that those engrafting the law in Israel continued to dress themselves in borrowed from Egyptian and Hebrew attire, and that only natural to the English principles of interpretation when seeking to understand them; and furthermore, some of the Jewish principles of interpretation had been codified in the Mishnah and Talmud, which, with the ex-

ment of the State,
ceded to the honou
of the first law to be ly translated into and had thus been
by the Israel he (See M.C. 15/66,
25/106).

---

Where to go and the Israeli-- sents invited to meet

ness. Information at Ge
Tourist Office, Jerusa
Aviv, Haifa.

THE STATE

Exhibition: 10 year
ecological activities,
Department of Antiqu
Shov Shlomo Hamelech

ings by van den
s House, 10-1, 4-7.
exhibition of Stud
: paintings, graphics,
work, textiles. New B
1, 10-1, 3.20-6.
e Thousand Years of J
2. Ancient Sites of Other Famous Etching

by Yvette Sackupak-
Ceramics by Elisheva I
Nora Art Gallery, 9
Ave., 10-1, 3-6.

pl. Museum, Sunday
day, 9-1, 3.30-6.
ure: -- a morning with Had conducted tour startin
Book for this tour
4061, Hadassah C
Health Centre.
w University Condu
daily, every hour on 9-1; 3-6. New Unive ance. Every Tuesday te istration Bldg. 11 a.m.
to Hebrew University
Medical School in Phone (until Mon
for bookings.

Film Exhibitions:—
 Grand Hyatt Hotel, 10 a.m.—
 Shows:—
 films daily 11.30
 Haystack Hall,
 Shows:—
 H. Goitsin (of New York)
 member of the American Society

the Psychiatric Treat
criminals, "The Aggre
nal." Edit. Nahalutso
Ibn Gahriol, 8.80.

AVIV
ner Camp
ual boarding Kaitan
a on Sunday, July 2
ified, as Thursday

Cinemas

JERUSALEM
ENON: Esclaves pour Mo
EN: The, Little Hut.
EL OR: Ich Und Meine Frau
ENON: La Parisienne
ENA: The Enemy Balcon
ON: Gang, Me!
ER GIL: Paris Palace Hotel
 10.30 a.m. Charlie Chaplin.
ION HALL: The Cumes are Wrying
EDION: Godalla
ENJO: Wilde, Cume

TEL AVIV
ELLENBY: H Sale Mach Oochi
LEMON DAVID: Augst. Nats.
 Shaigout v'Adminis
WHEN: Witness for the Prosecution
ADAN: The Invisible Boy
LEON: Lakes of Khelood
STERN: 7 Hills of Rome
ADAM BENNA: Saddle the Wind
AT: Up in the World
MAXIM: The Green Man, Nats.
 The Baby and the Battleship
THORALOR: Crime in the Street

DOGRAH: Kitty And The
 Grassie Welt
 FINE: Another Time, Another
 Place
 HION: Die Unentschuldigte
 Stunde
 HEN: Piccol.
 HEDENOTE: Black Widow
 Met.: Hans Christian An-
 dersee.
 JAHAN: Three Forbidden Stories
 CHELET: 6 Bridges to Cross
 ARON: Fardous
 ANIB: Culpoe Joe

AD. ADIVT: The Young Lions
 (R.M. 8.45, 9.30)
 AFON: La Nocti di Cabrira

HAIFA

 ENON: Scandal in Ischl
 N DOR: A Toi de Jomer Colla-chian

 ELY: Mr. Grant to be Young
 Mats. 1) The Red Ballerina
 2) The White Stallion
 MPHTHEATRE: The Three
 Faces of Eve
 RAB: Manner
 EION: Love Slaves of the

AL OS: Native Son
 TEMON: Sissy, Male.; Die
 Heisselmannchen.
 EKE: A King in New York
 ORIAN: Richard III.
 AY: The Girl Rush

---

SIX MORE YEARS

District Court, Judge M. Ken-et, that the accused is a rug addict and that during a recent incarceration he had ere treated in an attempt to cure him of his addiction. Shimon-Tov pleaded that no one had helped him to readjust to society after his recent release from prison.

ARABIC PROGRAMME
607 & 41.97 M.
Arabic Programme (including News): 6.30-7.15 a.m. 1.15-2.15 and 5.30-5.45 p.m. 8.15 p.m. 9.15
p.m.
KOL HON LAGOLA (33.3 M.)
Programme to South Africa: 6.30 p.m. 6.40 Topical Talk -
Harry Levin. 6.50 Asor Celebrations: Maritime Week. 6.55 Heb-w Corner.

Programme to the U.K.: 11.15
 Pws. 11.35 Topical Talk —
 Larry. Levin, 11.50 Music from nor Exhibition.

ARMY PROGRAMME (68.4
 5. 225 & 235 M.): 6.30 Opening.
 6.35 Songs, 7.00 News, 7.15 "Bow
 Arrow," 7.35 "Noah's Ark" Loti Yisrael), 8.15 "Ballet in the Shelter," 9.00 News, 9.15
 "Investigation" — Suspense
 Catch. 10.00 Dance Music.

B.C. HEBREW BROADCASTS
 13.30, 16.84 & 24.80 M.: 7.15-7.45
 News, News, News Talk, "Mid-

Branch of Americans and Canadians
rel ations to its chairman

M. BERMAN
te to Rabbi Berman on s of the Morton M. Ber-
Hills on Wednesday, participate and to notify the
will leave from the K.K.L.
THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

AMERICAN TOURISTS
Express Agency New York
 America and Canada and vice kinds of goods on Through considerable freight expenses.
ROYD Ltd., TRANSPORT
 1000 Avenue Lillienblum, Tel Aviv.
 577824.

Tel Aviv Municipality
The Department
for Education and Culture

for Hebrew

are being opened
House

el Frisch
 nov Ruppin
 the Depart-
 re, 20 S'derot
 aviv.

מס הכנסה

CHANGE OF ADDRESS
The Income Tax Commission wishes to announce that the Office of the National Collecting Officer for Agricultural Affairs (Income Tax) has moved from Leonardo Da

ci Street, Tel Aviv Kirya,
 The Income Tax Commission, the Treasury Building,
 Kirya, Jerusalem, P.O.B.
 1.
 (—) Y. SALMAN,
 Deputy Income Tax
 Commissioner

---

tions
 to the Public

Radio-Telephone Service to Sierra Leone, Gambia
and Sierra Leone

The Post Office management announced on Monday that radio-phone service between Israel and Sierra Leone, Gambia and Sierra Leone has been opened London.

The hours of service from Mondays to Saturdays are as follows:

London and Sierra Leone

14.00-17.50 (G.M.T.)
 18.00-19.50 (G.M.T.)
 15.50-16.50 (G.M.T.)
 The price for a three minute or less is H.L.900, with a charge of H.L.300 for each additional minute. The registration charge is H.L.010. Additional information may be obtained at all telephone exchanges.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES,
FURNITURE, KITCHEN UTENSILS, CHILDREN'S FURNITURE AND CARRIAGE.
Call: Stroller, Tel. 71188, Halla.

fully equipped, carpets,
phone, piano, gas, hot water, near Rothschild Blvd., Tel Aviv. Suitable for tourist. Phone 24521.
Tel Aviv, S.S. 1-4.

TO LET
for one year
at 41 Rehov Moriah,
Mt. Carmel,

3 room
furnished flat
with telephone, refrigerator and gas stove.
Phone 81791, Haifa.

---

Technical Stores — SUPPLY!
Best European, 10 years

Israel, five languages,
 technical background,
 administrative experience
 Excellent organizer, available
 for well paid job.
 Those interested please write to: P.O.B. 3157,
 Tel Aviv.

SECRETARY
time job.
of English and
ential.
2. Tel Aviv, Tel. 5965.

ant
trial book-keeping.
Typist
all time job. Knowledge ants are requested to m vitae, to: No. 368,
Aviv

ish and German, in-knowledge of French

price for library work.
ment.
O.B. 7055, Tel Aviv.

Fate of Kidnapped Israeli's Mystery

Concern has mounted during the past week over the fate of two Jewish Agency emissaries kidnapped by Arab guerrillas in February. They are Rami Yehonatan and Yacov Hanna, both aged about 40.

After protracted negotiations, the rebels had agreed to release the men by last week. But the whereabouts of their whereabouts Jewish Agency circles in Jerusalem are waiting for a report by persons leading the negotiations.

Mr. S. E. Shergal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to release the men shortly, told The Jerusalem Post last night that "as far as we know, the situation is neither better nor worse than it has been for some time. The rebels have always said the men are alive and would be released."

But we have heard nothing since last week.

DROWNED — 48 persons were feared drowned when

ECONOMICAL PACKING

TELMA

GENUINE MAYONNAISE

contains 200.grs.

USALEM
NDAR
#W7 5719
d Hebrew

לוח ירושלים

Wall or desk, carries 22 of life in Jerusalem, as Mayor Gershon Agon's story in miniature of the of Israel.

of THE JERUSALEM koshkops, kiosks, and shops.

7.750 ($1.00)

Order Coupon accepted only affiliates of The Jerusalem Food
FREE POSTAGE ANYWHERE

UPON
 and send direct to THE
 B. 61, Jerusalem, together
 $1.75 ($1.00) per copy.
 s), to:

Social &amp; Personal

The American Peace Delegation from the U.S. and Canada on Monday left for the East and were received by the Knesset Speaker, Mr. Yosef Sprinck. The delegation also visited Mount Zion and held a press conference in the Temple Mount area.

The Belgian Charge d'Affaires held a reception at his home at Ramat Gan on Monday evening. The guests included the Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Yosef Sprinck, and the Minister of Development, Mr. Meir Shalev.

Mr. Richard Tucker, the Metropolitan Opera tenor, and Mrs. Tucker were guests of A.O.A. House in Tel Aviv on Monday evening. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Tucker.

Prof. Moshe Davis of the Jewish Theological Seminary, New York, and Mrs. Davis were the guests at a luncheon given on Monday by the President of the Hebrew University, Prof. B. Shalom.

Ha'argaz to Ramle

TEL AVIV. — The building carpentry workshops of Ha'argaz Ltd. in the Neve Shanan district are to move to a 100,000 sq. ft. plot in Ramle. The move is being delayed by the lack of space on the present seven-acre site.

The 100 employees had for some time frustrated the move, causing the support of the local Labour Council leaders. The matter was settled at the meeting of the Ha'argaz Central Committee meeting on Sunday when the Secretary-General, Mr. P. Lavon, threw his authority behind the change. He decided that the Labour Council should, together with the plant management, determine the work conditions of the permanent staff.

'Wind' Fined $100

TEL AVIV. — A woman was on Monday fined $100 by the Magistrate's Court for practicing witchcraft without a licence. The woman, Mrs. Regina Ashkenazi, 35, of Ramat Gan, was also given a three-month prison sentence suspended for two years.

In her operations in Jaffa and Kfar Saba, Mrs. Ashkenazi made use of soap, human hair, nails and assorted objects in treating her patients for their disorders. Her services were fairly expensive, in one case amounting to $120 for an extended course of treatment.

ISRAELI FASHIONS FOR AMERICA

Plans to promote the export of Israeli fashion designs to the U.S. were discussed on Monday by Mrs. Miriam Fineman, head of the Women's Division of the Israel Bond Drive in the U.S. and Mr. Michael Tsur, Director-General of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

Baseball Standings

NEW YORK (UPI). — Major League standings following Saturday's games were as follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
San Francisco	47 31 161
Milwaukee	47 31 161
Chicago	47 31 161
St. Louis	47 31 161
Philadelphia	47 31 161
Cincinnati	47 31 161
Pittsburgh	47 31 161
Los Angeles	47 31 161

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York	47 31 161
Boston	47 31 161
Baltimore	47 31 161
Detroit	47 31 161
Kansas City	47 31 161
Chicago	47 31 161
Cleveland	47 31 161
Washington	47 31 161

EMERGENCY PHARMACEUTICALS

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JAFFA: Versano, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

TEL AVIV. Magen David, 25 Allenby, 2600. King George, 2630. King David, 2630. King George, 2630. King David, 2630.

JERUSALEM. Heral, 26 Jaffa, 539.

In the Supreme Court

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

Justice Silberg

LAW REPORT

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

LAW REPORT

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Jerusalem Post July 22, 1958

The Weather

Forecast: Seasonal pressure trough from Iran to our region. Weather partly cloudy. Breeze from the west.

Jerusalem	64	78	82
Tel Aviv	64	78	82
Haifa	64	78	82
Natanyah	64	78	82
Yotvata	64	78	82
Jerusalem	64	78	82
Haifa	64	78	82
Natanyah	64	78	82
Yotvata	64	78	82
Jerusalem	64	78	82
Haifa	64	78	82
Natanyah	64	78	82
Yotvata	64	78	82

Minimum temp. yesterday: 51
Maximum temp. yesterday: 82
Maximum temp. expected today: 84

ARRIVALS

Mr. J. J. Miller, London Secretary of the British Zionist Federation, and Mrs. Miller, will participate in this year's first Jewish Agency English-language seminar for Zionist workers. (By El Al.)

Mr. Hal Lehman, the free lance journalist, and Mrs. Lehman, for a week's visit.

Dr. J. Kohlberg, President of the Israel Planning Association and a Governor of the Hebrew University, after a year's visit to the Ministry of Education, will be in the University's School of Pharmacy.

Aluf-Melach Avraham Yaffi, from a three-day tour in the U.S. on behalf of the Israel Defense Forces and the United Jewish Appeal, (by Sabana.)

Mr. Levi Duttman, Chairman of the Economic Department of the Jewish Agency, from a week's visit to Paris on departmental business. (By El Al.)

Mr. John Roderick, Associated Press correspondent in London, to cover developments in this region. (By El Al.)

Prof. William Popenoe, Director of the Latin American Agricultural School in Honduras and an expert on tropical fruit culture, for a ten-day visit as guest of the Ministry of Agriculture. (By El Al.)

Mr. James Dixon, the son of Mr. Dimitri Mitropoulos, for a private visit to the Ministry of Education. (By El Al.)

Mr. Edward Brownman, of Montreal, Canada, on a private visit. (By El Al.)

Mr. David Tanne, head of the Housing Division of the Ministry of Labour, from a tour of Czechoslovakia with a United Nations delegation of housing experts. (By El Al.)

DEPARTURES

Mr. Zev Barash, of the Hadrat Executive, for the Congress of the Transjordan Workers' Union. (By K.L.M.)

Mr. Baruch Goller, Director of the Tel Aviv Zoo, for Frankfurt, to attend the International Conference of Zoo Directors. (By El Al.)

Mr. Gideon Saguy, to resume his duties as Consul of Israel in New York. (By El Al.)

Mr. W.H. Robert, the inspector for customs on a talent search. (By El Al.)

Mr. Y. Gadish, National Secretary of the Engineers Union, for London, to attend the Congress of the International Federation of Clerical and Technical Employees. (By Swissair.)

TOURISTS

Jerusalem and Israel can buy diamond jewelry, cameras, Swiss watches, French perfumes, and more at the Diamond Shop, Lydda Airport before boarding plane. (Adv.)

Cloudy Skies

Cloudy skies correctly presaged a scorcher in the lowlands on Monday, while in the hills the somewhat sharper pellicid air continued to warrant light sweaters and quilts in the evening. Clouds today (Tuesday) again were expected to move off, bringing the day to a warm and humid in the usual districts.

Jerusalem Police Crack Down

On Road Hogs, to Use Traps

By SHALOM COHEN, Jerusalem Post Reporter

Thirty-one drivers were caught speeding in Jerusalem on Friday. They were going beyond the higher speed limits which came into effect that day. They were all served summonses.

With the introduction of the new regulations, Jerusalem traffic police over the week-end kept a vigilant eye open for any offenders. "Now that the speed limits are higher, there can be no excuse for speeding, and we intend to be strict about this," Asst. Sup. Fred Hirsch, head of the Jerusalem Police Traffic Department, told The Jerusalem Post on Monday.

Speed traps are to be planted within the city, instead of being confined to usual open areas. Since the aim is not to catch drivers, the traps will be marked. They will be placed at known danger points and on roads where it is possible to measure speed easily, such as the entrance to the city.

Efforts are being made to have cases involving serious speeding, illegal overtaking, and drivers who have caused an accident through a traffic violation tried in court a day or two after the incident, instead of having to wait for a considerable period as hitherto. The first case in Jerusalem since the new regulations came into force, that of a driver charged with causing an accident through an offence — which now carries an obligatory sentence involving revocation of the driver's licence — will be tried on Tuesday.

Among those caught speeding on Friday were a bus driver and several motor scooter riders.

Mr. Heiman appealed to drivers and pedestrians for their cooperation. He stressed that the police are not bent on hauling in drivers, with all the unpleasantness that ensues; their aim is to make the roads safe for all.

Sick Fund Members May Choose MD

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. — Kupaat Holim members will be able to choose their own family doctors from among the physicians in their respective districts, and Kupaat Holim doctors will receive a fixed monthly salary relative to the number of patients registered with them and the treatment they give, according to an agreement reached on Monday between the sick fund's management and the doctors in its clinics. The agreement must be approved by the Kupaat Holim Doctors' National Council, which is scheduled to meet next week.

The agreement was reached at an eight-hour session of a committee headed by Mr. Aharon Becker, Director of the Histadrut Trades Union Department, and on the functions of doctors in the clinics. The meeting terminated several months of dispute which had held up salary and working agreements with the doctors.

Benefits Guaranteed

Under the new agreement, the patient will have direct contact with his family doctor, who will become the focal point of the health service. Each family will be served by a general practitioner and a pediatrician of its own choice. The doctors' existing social benefits will be guaranteed for the future.

Decisions have yet to be reached on the number of patients a family doctor should be expected to treat, and on the types of specialists to whom the patient should have direct access without being referred by his family doctor.

The doctors' representatives agreed to the management's demand that practitioners accept patients in their homes in districts where no clinics are available, or where existing facilities are too small to cope with the needs. The Kupaat Holim management would, however, in consultation with the doctors' organization, undertake to provide the necessary equipment and assistance in the doctor's home.

Salk Shots In Jerusalem

Salk booster shots will be given in Jerusalem from Tuesday (today) until Friday to children who received the first two anti-polio shots this year. The Ministry of Health has announced. Children born between November 3, 1954 and December 31, 1957 — those who have not been vaccinated at all or who had only one shot — will also be vaccinated.

Vaccinations will be given from 8 a.m. till 1 p.m. at the following stations: Branch of the Horev School, Kibbutz Strass (near Silur station); Kibbutz Gimmel Health Centre; Tzfat Halav Station in Tzfat Ma'bara; Kiryat Yovel Hadassah Health Centre.

First vaccinations will be given only at the branch of the Horev School.

Water Pumping May Be Stopped in T.A.

By SHALOM COHEN, Jerusalem Post Reporter

A proposal to ban the pumping of water from wells in the Tel Aviv area is under consideration by the Ministry of Agriculture's Water Authority.

The Authority's water experts are of the opinion that if pumping is allowed to continue, the wells will become irretrievably saline.

Moreover, a sufficient supply of water is now flowing into the city from the newly-opened Yarkon River supply pipeline if consumption is regulated by meters and waste is avoided. The Authority's experts point out that Tel Aviv annually consumes 128 c.m. of water per capita as compared with only 43 in Jerusalem, 29 in Haifa and 64 in Beersheva.

Schiff Gets Back One Hechsher

Jerusalem Post Reporter

The Orgil Hotel, Jerusalem, on Monday had its Hechsher restored by the local Religious Council, when the return of the certificate of hechsher to the President Hotel will be re-discussed by the Council in the next few days.

During this afternoon meeting with members of the Religious Council, Mr. Haim Schiff, who owns both hotels, expressed his hope that the President Hotel's Hechsher would be restored very shortly.

Mr. Schiff arrived at the Council's office in an angry mood at the head of a delegation of hotel workers and the secretary of the local Hotel Workers Union. Earlier in the day the delegation presented a petition to Mayor Agon.

The Hechsher certificate for the two hotels, which had expired some time ago, was not renewed by the Council, allegedly because of Mr. Schiff's partnership in Jerusalem's new mixed bathing pool, which he recently relinquished.

Managers Congress Postpones Setting Up Centre for 2 Months

By YAAKOV ARDON, Jerusalem Post Reporter

HAIFA. — The Managers' Congress which opened at Technion City on Sunday ended Monday night with the adoption of a resolution postponing for two months the founding of the projected Centre for the Advancement of Management. The chief reason for the postponement was to allow time for persuading the Histadrut Executive to reverse its stand opposing the association, which would have prevented managers of Histadrut enterprises from joining.

The proposed association is to be an independent body, and there will be no connection between it and either of the economic sectors. Mr. Joseph Ami, of Fertilizers and Chemicals, said on behalf of the organizing committee.

The congress was organized jointly by the Hebrew University's Kaplan School of Economics, the Technion, and the Productivity Institute. Lecturers at the congress were reinforced by experts from the U.S. Operations Mission and from the New York University team who are now here.

The 250 participants had a rich and varied menu of lectures and discussions to absorb, not all of them equally digestible. Problems of management development were debated under the guidance of group leaders in six sections, one each for the large, medium and smaller enterprises, for banking and trade, for transport and services, for public institutions and government departments.

The group discussions were supervised in their effectiveness in stimulating new thinking and feeling on management problems, with some impressing by the experience and others frankly disappointed.

There was a wealth of lectures by local and foreign experts, some of which were peppered with humor. One American hardly realized he was in the same subject as a particular problem when he mentioned that he had noticed that if the manager of an

IL750 Fine For Delaying Fruit

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. — For delivering 28 tons of oranges four days late to the Citrus Marketing Board, Aaron Keller, a Rehovot orange grower, was fined IL750 on Monday. The oranges were confiscated.

In passing sentence, Magistrate Y. Zohar declared that Keller had committed no mere technical infraction but a grave offence, a public interest, being to increase the price of oranges.

At the same time, the Council undertook to liquidate its debt to the water supply company, and appealed to local citizens to start paying their outstanding water bills totalling IL7,000. The Council has also begun to disconnect the water of outstanding laggards.

On Sunday, July 26, a bill forbidding, as from Sunday, July 27, the use of sprinklers in cool homes in this sweltering town.

Mekorot Restores Eilat's Water

EILAT. — Mekorot on Monday afternoon restored its water service to the Eilat Municipality at the request of the Minister of Development. The Minister intervened at the request of the Local Council after Mekorot had shut off the town's water supply from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, from 4 to 6 p.m. and from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. a reduction of 56 per cent on the grounds that the Municipality owed it IL27,000.

At the same time, the Council undertook to liquidate its debt to the water supply company, and appealed to local citizens to start paying their outstanding water bills totalling IL7,000. The Council has also begun to disconnect the water of outstanding laggards.

University Opening Social Work School

Jerusalem Post Reporter

The study of social work in Israel will be put on an academic basis when the Paul Baerwald School of Social Work opens in the Hebrew University next semester.

Information about the School was given to a press conference in Jerusalem on Monday by Dr. Eliezer Black, the school's first Director, and by Mr. M. Barzilai, Director General of the Ministry of Social Welfare; Prof. R. Baecher, Professor of the School; and Mr. L. Kewitz, Director of Malben.

The new institution will supersede the two social service schools now in existence in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.

The School is intended to train professional personnel on a scientific and disciplined basis. Dr. Black said it will award a Bachelor of Social Service degree upon the completion of a three-year undergraduate programme. Applicants must meet the regular academic admission requirements of the University.

The first class will have some 60 students and the nucleus of the faculty will be drawn from the two existing institutions. Speakers paid tribute to the "yemen work" of the Hebrew University, which has been administered by the Ministry of Social Welfare since the establishment of the State and the Tel Aviv School, which was founded in 1951 under the auspices of the State.

Water Pumping May Be Stopped in T.A.

By SHALOM COHEN, Jerusalem Post Reporter

A proposal to ban the pumping of water from wells in the Tel Aviv area is under consideration by the Ministry of Agriculture's Water Authority.

The Authority's water experts are of the opinion that if pumping is allowed to continue, the wells will become irretrievably saline.

Moreover, a sufficient supply of water is now flowing into the city from the newly-opened Yarkon River supply pipeline if consumption is regulated by meters and waste is avoided. The Authority's experts point out that Tel Aviv annually consumes 128 c.m. of water per capita as compared with only 43 in Jerusalem, 29 in Haifa and 64 in Beersheva.

BAT YAM SERIOUS ON WATER CURBS

Residents of Bat Yam who violate the water-conservation regulations promulgated Monday by the Municipality are liable to have their water cut off without notice.

Under the new regulations, gardens may be watered during only two hours daily from Sunday to Thursday as follows: the centre of town, Ramot Yam and Shikun Vatikim: 4-6 p.m.; Amudat and Shikun Oleg Hadassah: 6-8 p.m. No watering is allowed on Fridays, Saturdays, holidays and holiday eve. (Times)

TEACHER FOUND DEAD

Jerusalem Post Reporter

NEURIM. — A teacher at the Neurim Institute, near Eilat, took his life on Monday. Yaaqov Yitzhak, 32, had been awarded Votz Tova, another Government corporation. Its bid for the contract listed prices only half those asked by the Solel Boneh industrial trucking company. Hovav.

The Government Tourist Information Office and The Jerusalem Municipality

ANNOUNCE

an excursion

to the Arab village of Abu Ghosh and the collective settlement of Ma'alah Ha-Yamudim

on Wednesday, July 23

Tickets on sale at the Government Tourist Information Office, 90 King George Ave.

Buses will leave the above address at 2.30 p.m. and return about 7 p.m.

*FISSAN PERSPIRATION POWDER

1953 Payments To Be Made Taxable

Jerusalem Post Reporter

A recent Supreme Court decision to the effect that copyright payments made under the Copyright Law of 1953 are deductible from income tax will be set aside by an Amendment to the Law which passed its first reading in the Knesset on Monday.

Mr. Levi Bekel, Minister of Finance, making his first appearance at the Knesset since his recent illness, said that it had never been the legislature's intention that such payments should be taxable.

The compulsory loan was levied on all types of property, including currency and bank accounts. But the option given of paying an outright, non-refundable sum to the Treasury, amounting to one-half the sum of the loan. The Supreme Court's decision refers only to such outright payments.

Mr. Nahum Levine (Herut) and Mr. Ezer Weizman (G.S.) spoke against the amendment, while Mr. Aryeh Bahir and Mr. Ezer Weizman (both Mapai) supported it.

Herut and the General Zionists voted for the return of the bill to the Government.

Manicled Emblems

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Without opposition, the Knesset passed the Internal Affairs Committee's Local Authorities Bill (Emblem). Its purpose is to protect municipal emblems against their use by unauthorized persons or institutions.

An amendment to the National Service Law, which gives the Minister of Defense the right, for one more year, not to enforce the requirement that recruits be given one year of agricultural training, passed its first reading, without debate and without opposition.

The Knesset also passed the first reading of the Pawnshop Bill, which gives the Minister of Justice the right to regulate the pawnshop industry.

Over the opposition of all the religious parties and after the passage of the Inheritance Bill was passed in the Law Committee.

3,000 School Children Spending Holiday in Haifa Summer Camps

Jerusalem Post Reporter

HAIFA. — Some 3,000 school children are spending part of their holidays in the Municipality's summer camps this year, most of which are on Mount Carmel. The camps will cost IL90,000, of which the Town Hall pays 40 per cent with the rest made up by fees and a Government grant. Half of the children pay reduced fees and a few as little as IL1.

The camps are either full or half day. The Town Hall has employed 90 instructors in the camps. The Ministry of Education announced in Jerusalem on Monday that some 45,000 children are participating in such camps throughout the country.

At Haifa's main camp near Ahava, the 1,200 youngsters have split into four groups, each living its own adventure throughout the holiday. One group is the Builders of the Wall to re-enact the return to Zion in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah. They built their own wall of Jerusalem and made their own costumes.

The other groups are "The Gypsies," "India, the Land of Tranquility" (which is inhabited mainly by the more vivacious youngsters from the special schools for difficult children), and "Fraternity of the Nations," re-enacts the story of mankind from the Ice Age to the United Nations. Most of the 30 Arab children in the camp chose to belong to this section.

In the Panorama Gardens the Municipal Education Department is trying out a new summer camp experiment here. The children are permitted to choose among the activities that have been arranged for them, such as handicrafts, drawing, music, and play acting. The camps also include a home-made Fun Fair and puppet theatre and children are free to do what they like, when they like.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab. They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Consumer Imports Down, Capital Goods Up

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Imports during the first quarter of the current fiscal year totalled $118m. — 22 per cent of the foreign exchange budget, the spokesman of the Ministry of Finance reported on Monday.

Imports of capital goods amounted to $60m, as against $21m in the same period in 1957. Consumer goods imports cost $22m, as compared to $38m last year.

Another $15m were spent on the purchase of machinery and industrial equipment, which were exported after industrial processing.

Solel Boneh Loses Sand Digging Job

Jerusalem Post Reporter

The Ministry of Development has decided to take the digging of glass sand in the Mahshev Hagadol outside Rehovot to the present contractor, Even VeEl (a Solel Boneh subsidiary) and transfer it to a Government corporation, Harish VeElot Zah, the Ministry spokesman said in Jerusalem on Monday.

The spokesman declared that according to a report of the Geological Survey, Even VeEl extraction methods were costly and inefficient. Sand dug by the Solel Boneh company in the Mahshev Hagadol had been awarded VeElot Zah at its Dimona plant, and the Ministry felt that the latter could lower the price of its product appreciably if its raw materials were cheaper.

Harish VeElot Zah has meanwhile reduced its prices by 10 per cent in view of excess profits which have accrued.

The Ministry spokesman went on to say that the road haulage contract from the Mahshev Hagadol to Dimona had been awarded VeElot Zah, another Government corporation. Its bid for the contract listed prices only half those asked by the Solel Boneh industrial trucking company. Hovav.

Tourism Unhurt By M.E. Crisis

By PAUL ROBIN, Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. — The Middle East crisis has not, so far, hit tourism in Israel and only a handful of intending visitors have been known to cancel their plans. Mr. T. Kolk, Director General of the Prime Minister's Office, told The Jerusalem Post on Monday.

Mr. Kolk, who is also Chairman of the Government Tourist Corporation, was wary of predicting whether the crisis would seriously affect tourism. He estimated that between 7,000 to 8,000 visitors were now in the country and only a very small number had left Israel because of the events in neighbouring countries.

On the other hand, the 120 American tourists from Jordan last week were astonished at the calm here, Mr. Kolk pointed out.

The Government Tourist Corporation office here has been sending a number of British soldiers, some with their families, who have arrived on holiday in the past day or two from Cyprus. They have been well briefed by previous visitors from the British forces who have established a regular holiday headquarters in Natanyah. The British soldiers seem keenly interested in visiting kibbutzim, and a tourist office has been sending them to collect settlements where there are members of English-speaking countries.

It is estimated that some 2,000 foreign youngsters are in Israel at present, the majority from the U.S. and Canada.

In the first six months of this year 38,552 tourists arrived in this country. An additional 5,000 came in the first 16 days of this month.

How Iraqi Royalty Was Mowed Down

LONDON (Reuter).

King Faisal, Crown Prince Abdul Ilah and other members of the Iraqi royal family were mowed down by a machine-gun burst fired by a rebel army unit after being asked if they had any last wishes, according to an eyewitness account which has reached London.

The full story, told by a palace servant, said the 22-year-old king was the first to fall from the machine-gun burst, and the Crown Prince fell dead on top of his mother's body. The Crown Prince's aged mother was the third victim — she fell clutching a copy of the Koran.

Then, the eye-witness said, came the turn of the palace maid servants, all of whom were left lying in a huge pool of blood. The witness himself had his shirt pierced by a bullet but was able to escape.

Excellent Results From Lachish Sugar Cane

NEW YORK (Reuter).

ASHKELON. — The Lachish area is enjoying an excellent cotton and sugar beet season, according to the area's administrator for the Jewish Agency, Mr. Levi Argov.

The beet yielded five tons per dunam over an area of 2,800 dunams, with a sugar content of 21 per cent, results superior to those obtained in Holland or Belgium.

The 4,800 dunams under cotton promise to be excellent, but it seems that there will be a shortage of cotton pickers.

The 3,000 dunams of groundnuts in the region have not been too successful as the soil seems to be too heavy.

Dalles and Khrushchev Called 'Blind Fanatics'

NEW YORK (Reuter).

The 80-year-old philosopher, who recently broke from the World Peace Movement, declared: "The sort of men both in the East and West who believe themselves practical appear to be incapable of grasping, or at any rate acting upon, one quite simple fact — namely that the present moment onwards, until scientific teaching has been forgotten, any great war will in all likelihood involve the extinction of the human race. All talk of the great deterrent is nonsense."

Beduin Wife Found In Sinai Named

TEL AVIV.

The adoption of a Beduin wife found in the Sinai desert two years ago by a Jerusalem doctor was finalized on Monday in the Tel Aviv District Court by Mr. Faris Hamdan, Moslem M.K., when he gave her name legally altered to Sana' Hamdan.

Her finder, Dr. Albert Becker, had called her Sanyas, to recall the place where he came across her lying in her dead mother's arms. Afterwards, he had her legally named Ruth Becker.

In the meantime, Mr. Hamdan, who is a tailor, has installed her in his home in Baka' el-Gharbiya, where she is being cared for by his two wives. The name Sana' is Arabic. The name was chosen for its similarity to Sanyas.

A prefabricated Asbestos-Cement garage right next to your house

The following models are ready for immediate delivery:

Dolphin	IL137
Scout	IL139
Scout with side-car	IL123

Other sizes made to order. Cost of erection IL45. Inquiries invited to: P.O.B. 104, Nahariya.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Mr. Uri Livnat, who is in charge of the camps, said that this experiment had already proved a great success. However, it is more expensive as more materials and special buildings are needed. One third of the children are at this camp.

The youngsters also go to the sea three times a week under supervision.

Among the children is a group of 18 deaf-mutes and two blind boys, one an Arab.

They are helped to avoid the obstacles of the garden by two "special" boys from a special school.

Fate of Kidnapped Israelis a Mystery

Jerusalem Post Reporter

Concern has mounted during the past week over the fate of two Jewish Agency emissaries kidnapped by Algerian rebels in February. They are Raphael Ben-Gera and Yaaqov Hama, both aged about 40.

After protracted negotiations, the rebels had agreed to release the men by last week, but nothing is known of their whereabouts. Jewish Agency circles in Jerusalem are waiting for a report by persons handling the negotiations in Europe.

Mr. S. Z. Shragal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to return the men shortly, told The Jerusalem Post last night that "as far as we know, the situation is neither better nor worse than it has been until now. The rebels have always assured us that the men are alive and would be released. But we have heard nothing since last week."

Drowned — 4 persons ## were feared drowned when a ferryboat capsized on a lake in Madras on Monday.

Mr. S. Z. Shragal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to return the men shortly, told The Jerusalem Post last night that "as far as we know, the situation is neither better nor worse than it has been until now. The rebels have always assured us that the men are alive and would be released. But we have heard nothing since last week."

Mr. S. Z. Shragal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to return the men shortly, told The Jerusalem Post last night that "as far as we know, the situation is neither better nor worse than it has been until now. The rebels have always assured us that the men are alive and would be released. But we have heard nothing since last week."

Mr. S. Z. Shragal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to return the men shortly, told The Jerusalem Post last night that "as far as we know, the situation is neither better nor worse than it has been until now. The rebels have always assured us that the men are alive and would be released. But we have heard nothing since last week."

Mr. S. Z. Shragal, Director of the Agency's Immigration Department, who two weeks ago announced in London that the rebels had promised to return the men shortly, told

